"Diverse in Backgrounds, United in Faith"

Notes of thanks to the Trinity family for their kindness and generosity . . .

Thanks to all for the prayers we received. Jim came through his surgery beautifully and the only pain he now has is from the surgery. He is now able to eat without being in constant pain and feels better each day.

With warmest appreciation,
Beth & Jim McPike

The family of Dorothy Sorensen would like to thank all the members of Trinity for their support and prayers. Dorothy considered you her family. Thanks for the dinner following the service and a very special thank you to Rev. Ron Galvin, Jack Layman, and Jack Palmer for making the service so special. We know what this church meant to Dorothy.

Sincerely,
Bob Sorensen and Family

Dear Pastor Ron and Ladies of the Kitchen,

Thank you so very much for all the planning, care, and hard work in making Mom's, Dorothy Sorensen's, service very special. Pastor Ron, you were so very special to Mom. We thank you for your shepherding of her and all members of Trinity. Thank you for your visits to Mom in her home, assisted living, hospital, and memory care. The visits meant as much to her as I know he felt support from all of you.

May Trinity blossom in the years to come for the Lord. Ron, may you get much needed reward for a job well done.

Blessings to all,
Karen, one of Dorothy's daughters

Thank you for collecting the Best Choice Bar Codes. We have collected 441 for 2014.

The Sew & So's have made and delivered 38 quilts to Community Services League. What a service of love! Thank you, ladies.
